Would Be Arizona Senator.

"Col. H. L. Pickett, democratic candidate for United States senator reached Tucson Sunday noon and left early this morning for Tombstone. He was returning from California and stopped a day in Phoenix on legal business. Colonel Pickett was seen by a Citizen reporter at the Santa Rita hotel. He said: "It is true that I am a candidate for the senate. I was the first man in Arizona to enter the race and the first to advocate the selection of senators by primary. I think the advisory vote preferable to amendment of the constitution. I expect to make a speaking tour of the territory before the primary and before the election if selected as the democratic candidate at the primary. As soon as Governor Sloan issues his proclamation I shall announce my itinerary. As to the constitution, I believe in majority rule. We must amend now by striking out the recall of judges and if the people want it later, they can insert it. If they want to try this experiment let them do it. Later I will announce my platform giving the principles for which I stand."

"Col. Pickett would not express a preference as to running mate and denied having made any combination whatever."—Tucson Citizen.
